Resolution for a World Reconciliation Day

"A RESOLUTION TO IMPLORE THE UNITED NATIONS THRU SECRETARY GENERAL KOFI ANNAN TO DECLARE THE LAST SATURDAY OF THE MONTH OF APRIL OF EACH YEAR AS UN WORLD RECONCILIATION DAY."

WHEREAS, the major task of the United Nations is to promote world peace and order, security and equality, human right and dignity.

WHEREAS, to fulfill this vision demands refocusing world consciousness in seeking means and ways of mitigating confrontations and conflicts in sensitive areas such as economic, political, social, culture and religion.

WHEREAS, RECONCILIATION uplift the human mind to reach out and build structures that foster mutual interaction and responsorial exchange as shown by various inter-religious rites and traditions practiced around the world.

NOW, THEREFORE, WE, the undersigned officers of the hereafter named organizations, do hereby, and by virtue of these Resolution, implore the United Nations thru the Secretary General, the Honorable Kofi Anna, to designate the last Saturday of the month of April of each year as UN World Reconciliation Day.
